The first big political rally held by the county committee was staged Wednesday night in the park in West Palm Beach where all county candidates recommended themselves to the voters.

It sure did seem funny to be sitting back out there on one of those benches. Anyway, I enjoyed listening to the candidates enjoy their own virtues.

Fireworks were conspicuous by their absence. I thought for a while Senator Johnny Beachari and his opponent, Charley Abbott, might start a little something, but they cooled off and a lot of spectators left the park disappointed. Maybe things will warm up as the campaign progresses.

You could tell that most of the voters wanted to hear what the candidates for sheriff had to say. Just as soon as these two candidates made their bid for votes—half the crowd left the park.

The county committee is sponsoring other rallies in various parts of the county. It is hoped to be able to attend most of them.

I still think it would be a lot of fun to be up there with the boys and cross verbal swords with an opponent.

Pahokee Scouts Hold Regular Meeting

The Pahokee Boy Scouts held a good meeting last Monday night and examinations were taken by the scouts of the various troops. The Beaver patrol held a special meeting of the Pahokee Rotary club. Letture Crop Is Ended By Elements

Just as the Imperial Valley farmers of California get well set for a good season on iceberg lettuce, the Everglades lettuce crop goes to pot, owing to excessive rain and heat, which brought the season to a sudden end. Thurmond Knight, who has been the champion of lettuce, reports that he had quite a satisfactory season, even against great odds, and the yield he secured of top lettuce was very good.

Heavy rains of the forepart of the week checked up a bit the picking of beans and English peas, but by the end of the week double pickings of these crops brought up a big shipping volume. Over the week end the northern markets on these commodities took a lightning slump downward, and beans were being sold on "get what you can price."

However, after the inferior water-soaked consignments had been disposed of at ridiculous prices the market began to take an upward trend.

Celery growers are hustling in big supplies from the Belle Glade area, and another big week of shipments is expected. Prices continue to remain from 90c to $1.15 the crate. The celery still continues to be of good quality. The lettuce plant's new arrival table is in use this week. But the season of activity there will likely close around May 15th.

A large proportion of the cabbage ready for cutting has been harvested, with a bit of a slump in price, as crops of other sections begin to filter into the main markets. Many farmers have new crops coming on for later summer supply. Tomatoes, which were the storm hazards, will begin to drag into the Glades packing season. Peppers and egg plant will also begin to appear in family reunion. Late lima bean crops are making favorable reports. These this delicious table vegetable will be the season again.

THE BELE GLADES

BELLE GLADE, PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA, FRIDAY, APRIL 12, 1940.

Dr. Townsend Will Attend Fair Today

Officials of the Everglades fair at Belle Glade announced last night that Dr. Francis Townsend will attend the fair today. The fair officials did not say whether Dr. Townsend plans to make a speech. However, he is scheduled to speak in the parking lot at West Palm Beach at 8 p. m. tonight.

Senator C. O. Andrews At Fair Tomorrow

Senator Charles O. Andrews will speak at the Glades fair tomorrow morning, according to a special announcement made yesterday by officials of the fair association. Senator Andrews is on a swing around the state in behalf of his candidacy for re-election.

Sugar Company To Erect Several New Buildings In Camps

The quarterly issue of the Sugar Cane Press, published by the U. S. Sugar Corporation, for its employees, contains the announcement of a number of improvements contemplated for the coming summer. At Pelican Lake, a new cannery store building and a new recreational hall will be erected. Additional bleachers will be added to the stadium at Azucar.

The new Pelican Lake recreational building will be used jointly as an amusement and moving picture house and will include a storage capacity. Report is that the picture shows in the various camps are popular.

STATE ADVERTISING

Before 1935, only six states made any provisions in their fiscal budgets for advertising. This year, 40 states have earmarked funds to be used for publicity extolling their merits, and 75 per cent of these states intend to use the newspapers of the nation liberally to get their messages across. A total of about $4,400,000 has been appropriated. Thirteen of the states have appropriated more than $100,000 each. The highest advertising allotment—$25,000—is that of Florida, which long ago became aware of the old axiom, "It pays to advertise."

It's pretty hard to tell definitely just how much it pays. Many of the benefits from advertising are too intangible to be measured. But some of the states, which started advertising in 1937, have already seen the results burst right out into indisputable statistics.

Arkansas picked up 92 new factories, representing a total investment of $2,600,000. New Jersey noted a $167,000,000 tourist business last year, a 28 per cent increase in the value of the state's branded advertising products. North Carolina opened its arms to 51 new factories during the first eight months of 1939. Wisconsin's gain in tourist trade was reflected by the jump in gasoline taxes from $6,500,000 in 1935 to $8,030,000 in 1939, and in nonresident fishing licenses from 65,157 to 112,185.

The influx of tourists in any state projects its effect far beyond the hotel keepers, restaurant owners, resort landlords, and department stores, who are usually direct beneficiaries. The money taken in seeps through the entire community. It creates new jobs, makes possible greater spending, filters finally to the smallest business man, far removed from direct contact with tourists.

State's advertising this year should bring even greater demands, with travel abroad cut off.—Sarasota Herald.

Speaking of the 3,000 barbecue crowd in Orlando Whitechair declared he would use all the power of his office to give citrus growers relief from legislation which he said had throttled the industry. "I am definitely opposed to governmental interference with private industry. The citrus farmer has vitally been starved to death by such interference and I promise you that I will break the backs of the special interests which are trying to keep the price of citrus down to a level below which the grower is able to break even. Under the Whitechair administration we are going back to making citrus on trees rather than in packing houses," he concluded.

BONUS CHECKS

Farmers of Palm Beach county who signed up for conservation program projects, will receive from the government as bonus payments the sum of $23,000 checks which are in the hands of M. U. WPA Cut Takes 11
Men Off Local Job

The recent labor retrenchment order on WPA projects in Palm Beach county caught the new Pahokee state market work to the extent of 11 men, the crew being reduced from 30 to 20 men, most of them being common laborers. Work is progressing favorably on the first half unit of the main market house structure. On this place, one third the roof trussing, Thursday. He is scheduled to be in position, and a sizeable section of the metal roofing is in place.

The idea of taking up the work in sections, is to be sure that at least one half of the market space will be available for utilization for the opening of the fall crop season.

As soon as the first half is completed, then the second half will be pressed to quicker completion. No work has been started on the smaller second building and the Florida East Coast has not run spur switches to the plant.

Miss Boren Weds

William H. Moore

On April 6th, at the office of County Judge Robbins, at West Palm Beach, occurred the marriage of Miss Margaret Boren and William H. Moore, in the presence of a few friends as witnesses. The bride was a graduate of the Pahokee high school in 1939, and is a young woman with a legion of friends. Since 1928, when her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. Boren, were killed in the hurricane, she made her home with her grandmother, Mrs. Paul Teague. Mr. Moore, a graduate of the University of Florida, is on the staff at the Everglades Experiment Station as assistant pathologist. Upon their return from a honeymoon trip to North Florida points Mr. and Mrs. Moore will reside in their new home in the Walker-Evans subdivision in Belle Glade.

Recent Bride Is

Honored At Shower

Some fifty guests were recently entertained at the woman's club in Pahokee, by Mrs. B. Elliott, Nola Dragon, Edna Pickett and Miss Billie Danson, in a post-nuptial shower honoring Mrs. H. B. Baxter. The club room was most attractively decorated with seasonal flowers.

Games of entertainment were introduced and in the word contest Thurla Mayo was the winner. Mrs. Thadde Whidden also won several vocal selections. Mrs. Baxter was made the recipient of a large number of gifts for household and personal use. Refreshments were served.

Circles Hear

Conference Reports

A goodly number of the members of the three Missionary societies of the Methodist church gathered at the church Monday afternoon for the monthly joint session, with Mrs. D. D. Casidit presiding. Much enjoyment was received from the entertainment which Mrs. G. W. Byrd, presented through the group of girls of which she is the leader. Mrs. W. Sanders most beautifully rendered the vocal selection "Be Still My Soul," with Mrs. Dorothy Graham at the piano. The circle listened to reports of the annual conference held at Ocala, last week, by Mrs. John M. Gledhill, Mrs. Norman Kennedy, Mrs. Fred Martin and Mrs. Duncan Padgett.

Scout Minstrel

Is Big Success

The minstrel show put on at the Everglades theatre at Belle Glade, last week, as a benefit for the Boy Scouts, drew a large patronage, and the entertainment was far excellent. The net proceeds were $172.00, which will go toward a fund for the erection of a "hut" for the scouts of that city.

B. G. Woman's Club To

Honor Mrs. Paty

Open house will be held at the Belle Glade Woman's club building on Saturday, April 13 from three till five in honor of Mrs. B. P. Paty. All ladies of the Lake Region and surrounding communities are invited to attend. In charge of arrangements for the afternoon are: Mrs. B. Y. Prev, Mrs. H. T. Holloway, Mrs. A. M. Kirkman, Mrs. Ralph Freeman, all of Belle Glade and Mrs. John A. Dolany and Mrs. L. L. Stuckey, Pahokee.

Miss Marcelline Creech, who is to be married to Charles E. Creech, was honored with a linen shower Saturday, given by Mrs. James Darden. The group met at Mrs. Darden's home on the Clewiston Road where the gifts were displayed, and then went to the Clewiston Inn for a luncheon. Those who went were the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Robert Creech, her aunt, Mrs. Sidney Smith, Mrs. W. W. Weeks, Mrs. John L. Evans, Mrs. Bucky Lutz, Miss Elizabeth Thompson, Mrs. Henry Stotenberg, Miss Sally Mae Lloyd, Miss Jackie Creech, Miss Nancy Hooker and Miss Paty Paulk.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Louise Boren to Howard, Moore was solemnized in West Palm Beach Saturday afternoon in the office of Judge Richard P. Robbins. The only attendants were Mrs. Moore's grandmother, Mrs. Pearl Teague, Miss Margaret Boren and Mrs. Kathryn Sheffer. The couple left immediately after the ceremony for Lake Wales where they spent the week end. They are at home in their newly built home in the Walker-Evans subdivision.

Mrs. Brooks Spann entertained the Tuesday afternoon bridge club at her home in Belle Glade Park this week. Two tables were in play with Mrs. Spann winning high score. Mrs. Oita McWhorter, second, and Mrs. C. L. Wilder, third. Others playing were Mrs. William J. Buck, Mrs. Charles E. Maynard, Mrs. Thadde Whidden, Mrs. W. H. Vann and Mrs. T. W. Knight. The club meets next week at the home of Mrs. Maynard.

Billy Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hill, entertained a group of friends at a winner and marshmallow roast, celebrating his 15th birthday anniversary at his home Monday night. After the roast games were enjoyed on the lawn. Those present were Walter Granger, Frances Collins, Norma McCurdy, Reed Collins, Emily Bregger, Wilber Kirkman, Betty Ann Hill, Roy Harris, Howard Hill and Miss Betty Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Clapp of Miami are here this week on business.

Mrs. Cliff Livingston entertained the Tuesday Night bridge club this week at Carter's pharmacy. Three tables were in play, with Mrs. Shelly Evans winning high score. Mrs. Dorothy Scott, second, and Mrs. Francis Harris, third. Others playing were Mrs. W. P. Hill, Mrs. C. E. Maynard, Mrs. Ralph Freeman, Mrs. Herbert Beck, Mrs. B. Q. Waddell, Mrs. I. E. Hamilton, Mrs. Grady Edwards and Inez Dickenson.

Miss Mary L. Hall was called to Lake Worth Wednesday because of the sudden death of her mother, Mrs. Mary A. Hall.

Glades Fair—

tion, in charge of Mrs. Edith Barrie. No attempt was made here to have a large general display of home prepared foods, but just enough to demonstrate what could be raised and prepared to the in-oh common life food list demands.

One of the most attractive displays, and one which received much attention, was the one in charge of Nurse Brown, which set out articles of home made made by the children of the colored schools and in the plantation. The display showed much improvement and arrangement over former years, both in variety and better products.

The U. S. Sugar Corporation also has the display it had at both the Florida State Fair at Tampa and the Ft. Myers and Moore Haven fairs, and as this is a sugar country, many people hovered around and studied the display. There was one booth in the center of the big tent that was well patronized and that was the eating booth conducted by the Baptist church women, where they served delectable foods and sandwiches to the hungry crowd.

As usual, the public schools at Canal Point, Pahokee, Belle Glade and South Bay had excellent displays of school work done by the children. The department of the schools from the kindergarten to the high school. They were well worth visiting.

In the left entrance of the big tent, the Island Gardens corporation had a wonderful garden display of shrubbery and flowering plants, that pleased the eye of everyone.

Another display that created considerable attention was the celery display made by the Palm Beach Celery Grower's Association. Here was demonstrated the manner of preparing the ground for the plants, the manner of propagating the plants and care of the planting and care of the plants to the point of the manner of harvesting and packing, and the various types of celery grown in the Glades.

Tuesday was school day at the fair, and a goodly number of the children attended, enjoyed the midway attractions, and getting away with many types of "candy" purchasable at the various stands.

On Wednesday Lake Worth delegation came up for the day, and on Thursday, Ft. Lauderdale and Miami swelled the daily attendance. This Friday is Civic club day, and many club men are to be present at the Rotary club noon day dinner and program.

Saturday, the closing day, will be Political day, and a free barbecue will be a noon day feature. Many candidates are expected to be present on this occasion.

The Day Nursery, in the Legion hall, was also open for fair attendant visitors, and here many got information as to the manner in which many migrant children had been given care during the season.

The committee which had charge of the judging of the community exhibits placed them in the following order: South Bay, first; Belle Glade, second; and Pahokee, third.

In the school exhibit race, Belle Glade got the blue ribbon, Pahokee, second, South Bay, third, and Canal Point, fourth.

Miss Margaret Kirkman was elected the "Queen of the Evening," and her cortege, and the young people, held merry reign at the fair on Thursday night.

Expense Lists Are

Filed By Seekers

Of State Offices

Names Of Contributors, Minus Addresses, Shown On Reports

Tallahassee, April 8—B. F. Paty of West Palm Beach reported here today he had spent $7,772.50 and received contributions of $5,019.50 in seeking democratic nomination for governor.

Burton Schoepf of Tampa, another candidate for governor, listed expenses of $2,055 and contributions of $28.

Gov. Fred P. Cone, running for United States senate, reported expenses of $3,334 and contributions of $4,995.

All candidates must report to Secretary of State Robert A. Gray their campaign expenses by April 12. Two other reports must be filed later.

Paty's principal expenses were $225 for advertising, $2,475 for publicity, including sound wagon, $1,131 for printing and stationery, $847 for postage, and $1,860 for traveling.

Principal contributors listed by Paty were: Harry Miller $1,000, John J. Egan $1,000, J. H. Halloway $200, Austin Kelley $260, J. H. Cromier $200, E. A. Pynchon $200, J. B. Powell, Jr. $200, Harry Miller $100 and Enloe Dodson $200.

Schoepf's major expenses were $472 for traveling, $435 for renting, $375 for qualifying, $150 for headquarters rental, and $102 for telephone and telegraph. He had contributions of $100 from Mrs. J. H. Schoepf, and received $161 for certificates, at $1 each.

Governor Cone's major expenses were $287 for stenographic and clerical help, $400 for business manager, $707 for postage and envelope, $716 for literature, $1,000 for stationery, and $249 for sound equipment.

Contributors listed by Cone included: Smith $1,000, C. C. C. $1,000, R. King $500, H. Wolfe $500, J. Belcher $500, J. Hall $200, and the following at $100 each: T. Scott, H. Wall, H. Cone, H. Lawrence, J. Baker, S. Hinely, J. Threllet, T. Long, and D. Finley.

None of the candidates listed addresses of their contributors.

W. B. Douglas, for state railroad commissioner $248 and none.

Robert A. Gray, for secretary of state, $702 and none.

Nathan Mayo, for commissioner of agriculture $250 and none.

Trailer Camp

Will Be Re-arranged

As an experiment, and to get some financial gain from its investment, Manfield Post of the American Legion, the last season, opened up a tourist camp at the fair grounds. The venture proved a surprise to the veterans, and the Post is now considering developing a modern tourist camp there for the coming season. It was found that many tourists knew nothing about the camp in Pahokee, but having located it, many were so pleased that they remained for considerable periods of time.

Truckers, forced to wait over for cargoes, also found it convenient and safe place to park their equipment while here.

Instead of promiscuous parking, the grounds will be platted off into regular parking space, equipped with electric power service, trailers, baths, and cooking and laundry stations will be installed so that tourists can have facilities during their stay in the camp. A big sign will also be hung out in front of the camp site.

CARD OF THANKS

FRANCIS P. WHITEHAIR

FRANCIS P. WHITEHAIR

Candidate for Governor

OFFERS FLORIDIANS

AN HONEST, CAPABLE, FEARLESS

Business Administration

Here Is What Francis P. Whitehair Has To Say:

A united spirit Florida must have. A Florida spirit. But it must be a spirit of tolerance. Interests in Florida are widely diversified and each fills an important sphere. Each interest must be progressive, but it also must admit the right of other interests to be progressive. For instance, the playgrounds must admit the great value had been given care during the season.

As I visit with the people of the State I will endeavor to explain in detail what I believe each section can contribute to bring a progressive state-wide program into being.

Such a program will assure Florida the future it deserves. It will mean work, but I know what it is to work. I have milked cows at dawn, operated a milk route, and swept school buildings and churches for a livelihood. I worked my way through the last two years of high school and college by doing various kinds of manual labor. In fact I have worked practically all of the thirty-nine years of my life. To me there is nothing better for one than a lot of wholesome work to do; and it is my firm opinion that the unemployed of this state are eager for an opportunity to work. We should, therefore, lend every state assistance possible in providing employment for our people.

So intricate has government become, that neither the people nor the lawmakers themselves can regard it as anything but mysterious, vague, oppressive, somewhat unknown, and immensely regulating in every phase of life.

With a state, outstanding in natural advantages, poor local, county and state government has restricted the development merit warrants. This menacing condition must be remedied, for until it is Florida will not attain its otherwise glorious future.

To overcome this condition I propose the application of plain business principles, backed and aroused and militant citizenry. Carelessness, confusion, cross-purposes, lack of understanding, selfishness, greed, short-sighted planning, lack of sense of proportion must give place to well laid plans and unselfish industry.

Progressive leadership must be furnished, and that I believe I can supply. To my way of thinking, a state as wealthy as Florida never should face bankruptcy on any front. The government itself should be the soundest business of all, just as it is the biggest business.

I repeat, simple business principles, supported and sustained by a united people, will do the work. Simple business, widely and fairly applied, and unselfish, too.

Something is greatly wrong when fifty million dollars will not run a state like Florida, and that is the state's annual income! Such an income! Why cannot state employees' salaries be paid promptly? Invoices paid regularly; adequate old age relief made available, and reserve funds in the treasury accumulated, with such a vast sum of money at hand?

I am fearful the whole system, in principle, is hopelessly antiquated and lapsed, suited perhaps to conditions fifty years ago, but now utterly inadequate, and it must be revised in view of needs of 1940.

Such a platform might have a thousand planks. I suggest a few to indicate the trend I will follow.

Simplify government so that responsibility is fixed, and made quickly responsive to public demands.

Appoint only capable, practical, experienced and honest men and women to all appointive positions.

Smooth out inequalities in revenue, so that property will have real value and ownership be made a premium.

Abolish waste everywhere, not in finance only, but in the operation and coordination of all government services.

Re-establish confidence in government itself by good government.

Exhort government to stay in its proper sphere, and not to expect too much of it.

Reform the legislature as a branch of government of equal dignity and power with that of the executive and judiciary.

Adequately provide for the aged and helpless.

Provide schools equal to the best in the land, which includes proper pay to school teachers and the establishment of a retirement fund for them.

Fight crime with every resource, and keep the killers, gangsters, mobsters and racketeers out of Florida.

Find relief for and cooperate with the towns and cities, which have suffered unjustly from loss of revenue.

Give Florida the best highway system in America, and the safest.

Advocate town, city and state planning.

Foster every movement for the conservation and development of our natural resources.

Stimulate honest and wholesome entertainment for visitors and surround them with never-failing good will.

Prevent political influence with the Citrus Industry by assuring it the right of self determination.

The adoption of a program with due consideration to the grower, shipper and consumer.

Encourage the rapidly growing livestock, hog, poultry and fishing industries by lending such assistance as is consistent with Governmental responsibility.

Encourage, as far as is possible, all agricultural industries within our state and prevent, if possible, encroachment thereon by other states of our national government, including discriminatory trade agreements with foreign countries.

Protect and preserve our forests and encourage the rehabilitation thereof.

Assist legitimate labor movements of Florida in the administration of state matters in which they are directly affected.

Aid and assist the Veteran Organizations of the state.

Tolerate no invasion of American soil, so that foreign and subversive movements cannot live on Florida soil.

Protect and rehabilitate Florida's Wildlife.

Encourage women to take a more active part in public affairs and to hold public office, believing their greater and more active influence will raise the standards of citizenship.
